

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE
SRIKRISHNA COLLEGE

Academic Report: Indian Constitution Day/Samvidhan Diwas Celebration

Event Name: Indian Constitution Day/Samvidhan Diwas

Date: 26 November 2024

Venue: Smart Classroom 42, Srikrishna College

Time: 12:10 p.m. onwards

Purpose of the Event

The purpose of the event was to celebrate Indian Constitution Day and raise awareness about the importance, history, and spirit of the Indian Constitution among students and faculty.

Activities Conducted

- Special Lecture:

The program started with a special lecture on the Historical Background and Philosophy of the Indian Constitution. The session was conducted by Dr. Nivedita Saha, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, University of Kalyani.

- Inauguration of Departmental Wall Magazine (ANUCHINTAN):

The theme of the magazine was “Citizen Rights and Duties”.

- Students’ Seminar:

Students presented talks and seminars on the topic Citizen Rights and Duties.

- Documentary Screening:

A short documentary about the Making of The Indian Constitution was shown, helping students understand the constitution’s development.

Notable Quote Shared

A memorable quote by Dr. B. R. Ambedkar was highlighted:

“Constitution is not a mere lawyers’ document, it is a vehicle of Life, and its spirit is always the spirit of Age.”

Attendance

Students and faculty members of the Political Science department attended enthusiastically, showing great interest in all activities.

Outcome

The program helped participants learn about the significance and values of the Indian Constitution. Students gained knowledge about their rights and duties as citizens and became inspired by the life and message of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. The activities helped promote civic responsibility and respect for constitutional values. The Constitution Day celebration was successful and informative. It motivated students and staff to understand and uphold constitutional values in everyday life.

