REPORT ON NATIONAL WEBINAR

The world is facing a global health crisis; COVID 19 has been created devastating and threatening impact on everyone's life across the globe. It has an immense effect on changing the lifestyles and reproducing a new normal life pattern worldwide. It is notably transforming and made life difficult for the whole population irrespective of caste, creed, race, religion and gender. Especially it situates major issues and vulnerabilities for the marginal population. It has been shown that women, irrespective of all classes, strata and statuses, are suffering during this pandemic. Their nature of suffering might be different from class to class, physical to mental health, but women are getting discriminated and disrespected within every society across the globe. Covid-19 has heightened pre-existing inequalities in regard to gender and exposed gaps in our social systems, amplifying the effects of the pandemic. In this situation Department of Political Science, Srikrishna College organised One Day International Webinar on Covid19 through the Lens of Gender" on 27th July ,2020 . This webinar explored various perspectives of Gender issues during COVID19 pandemic.
