From the
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

The Department of Political Science organized an Orientation Programme for 1st-semester students on 01.08.2023.

The program was started with a speech by Dr. Sukdeb Ghosh (Principal) and Arijit Chowdhury (Assistant Professor & HOD, Department of Political Science). Arijit Chowdhury explained the key points of the newly adopted education policy and briefly described the new syllabus for 1st Semester based on New Education Policy, 2020 and the process of examination.

Kamalesh Podder was present in this program and discussed the significance of the new education policy and its implication. Many students asked different types of questions related to NEP and their new Syllabus. Other faculties also contributed to their role through the conversation with newly admitted students. They also tried to solve the different types of queries raised by the students. More than 130 hundred students participated in this program.

Some pictures of the aforementioned programme are given below.
