Best Practice 1

Date

1. Title of the Practice: Promotion of Gender Equity

2. Objectives of the Practice:

The primary objective of the practice is to contribute to the promotion of gender equity within the institute's community. The specific goals include:

- Conducting seminars, debates, and group discussions that bring both boys and girls onto a single platform to foster understanding and dialogue.
- Implementing an awareness program on women's empowerment and gender sensitivity to educate and sensitize individuals within the institute.
- Addressing the issue of cybercrime through educational initiatives and providing resources for self-defence training.

3. The Context:

In the context of contemporary society, gender equity remains a crucial concern. The institute recognizes the need to actively engage its students in discussions and activities that promote awareness, understanding, and action toward achieving gender equity.

4. The Practice:

The institute has implemented a multifaceted approach to promote gender equity:

Regular events are organized to facilitate open conversations among both genders.

- Awareness Program on Women's Empowerment and Gender Sensitivity: The institute conducts programs aimed at educating the community about issues related to women's empowerment and gender sensitivity. These programs may include workshops, lectures, and awareness campaigns.
- Cybercrime and Self-Defense Programs: Recognizing the evolving challenges, the institute addresses the issue of cybercrime through educational programs. Additionally, self-defense training sessions are organized to empower individuals, particularly women, to protect themselves physically and online.

5. Evidence of Success:

The success of the practice is evidenced through various initiatives and their impact:

- Seminar on Harassment at College Campus: The Grievance Redressal and Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell organized a seminar focusing on legal remedies for harassment issues on 18/11/2022, indicating a proactive approach to addressing concerns.
- Women's Hygiene and Early Marriage Issues Program: The Women's Cell, in collaboration with IQAC, organized a program addressing crucial topics such as women's hygiene and early marriage issues on 12/12/2022, showcasing a commitment to holistic education.
- POSH Training Program: The institute organized a training program on the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) on 25/11/2022 to equip individuals with the knowledge and skills to create a safer environment.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

Adequate resources are essential for sustaining initiatives. The institute may need to secure funding for seminars, training programs, and awareness campaigns.

BEST PRACTICE 2

1. Title of the Practice: Village Adoption

2. Objectives of the Practice: The Village Adoption initiative by Srikrishna College is driven by a commitment to the all-round holistic development of not only the college and its stakeholders but also its surrounding community.

3. The Context: Srikrishna College recognizes its responsibility to contribute to the development of the broader community surrounding the institution. The choice to adopt Madna, a village primarily consisting of Scheduled and other backward classes, reflects a commitment to addressing socio-economic disparities and promoting inclusive growth.

4. The Practice: The Village Adoption Program is a multi-faceted approach to community development:

- NSS and IQAC Involvement: The National Service Scheme (NSS) and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college play pivotal roles in planning and executing the program.
- Health and Social Awareness Campaign: On 5th July 2022, the NSS Wing organized a Health and Social Awareness Campaign. This event aimed to address health issues and create awareness about various social concerns, fostering a sense of community well-being.
- Dengue Awareness and Cloth Distribution Program: On 28th September 2022, the NSS Wing organized a specific initiative targeting health concerns. The Dengue awareness and cloth distribution program not only addressed a pressing health issue but also provided practical assistance to the villagers.

5. Evidence of Success: Active involvement in the village indicates successful collaboration and an understanding of community needs. The Dengue awareness and cloth distribution program provide evidence of the program's impact, offering tangible support to the community.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required: Sustaining a Village Adoption Program requires consistent resources, including financial support, volunteers, and material resources. Depending on the needs identified, significant infrastructure projects may require additional resources.
