

Report on Participation in “Connecting the Dots” – A National Conference on the Future of Learning

Organized by: Chitkara University, Chandigarh

Date: 8th February 2025

Venue: Chitkara University Campus, Chandigarh

Participating Institution: Srikrishna College, Career Counselling Cell

1. Introduction

On 8th February 2025, three representatives from the Career Counselling Cell of Srikrishna College attended “Connecting the Dots” – A National Conference on the Future of Learning, organized by Chitkara University, Chandigarh. This prestigious event brought together educators, researchers, industry experts, and academic leaders from various schools, colleges, and universities across India.

The primary objective of the conference was to discuss and explore emerging trends, innovative practices, and strategic approaches in the field of education to prepare the next generation for a rapidly evolving world.

2. Objective of Participation

- Gaining insights into the future direction of education and learning methodologies.
- Understanding best practices from academic leaders and industry experts.
- Gathering innovative ideas that can be implemented at Srikrishna College for student benefit.
- Strengthening professional connections with other institutions.

3. Conference Overview

- The conference featured keynote sessions, panel discussions, and interactive workshops. Topics covered included:
- The role of technology in personalized learning.
- Future-ready skills for students.
- Inclusive and equitable education systems.
- Collaborative approaches between academia and industry.
- The importance of creativity, problem-solving, and critical thinking in future education models.

Speakers comprised eminent professors, education policy makers, corporate trainers, and thought leaders who shared practical experiences, research outcomes, and innovative strategies.

4. Key Takeaways

- Technology Integration: Artificial Intelligence, Virtual Reality, and data analytics will play an essential role in delivering personalized learning experiences.
- Skill Development Focus: Emphasis should be placed on skills such as adaptability, emotional intelligence, digital literacy, and lifelong learning.
- Collaborative Learning: Partnerships between academic institutions and industries will enhance employability and skill readiness.
- Inclusive Education: Special focus is needed on bridging the gap for marginalized and rural students through accessible resources.
- Continuous Curriculum Upgradation: Education must remain dynamic to align with evolving career landscapes.

5. Benefits to Srikrishna College

The participation in this conference provided valuable exposure and actionable strategies that can be adapted at Srikrishna College, including:

- Incorporating modern teaching tools and e-learning platforms.
- Organizing workshops for students to develop future-ready skills.
- Building collaborative projects with other institutions.
- Enhancing career guidance programs based on upcoming industry trends.

6. Conclusion

Attendance at “Connecting the Dots” – A National Conference on the Future of Learning proved to be a significant opportunity for professional growth and institutional development. The insights gained will contribute towards enriching the learning environment at Srikrishna College, ensuring that students are better prepared for future challenges and opportunities.

REPORT ON ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON BUSINESS COMMUNICATION SKILLS

REPORT

CAREER DEVELOPMENT COUNSELING
& PLACEMENT CELL
SRIKRISHNA COLLEGE

REPORT ON THE WORKSHOP: "BUSINESS COMMUNICATION SKILLS"

The Career Development Counseling & Placement Cell of Jangipur College, Kandi Raj College, Srikrishna College Bagula, and Kanchrapara College successfully organized a workshop on "Business Communication Skills" on March 20, 2025, at 12:00 Noon in a blended mode. This event was a part of the broader initiative, "An Initiative to Bridge the Gap Between Industry & Academia (Part-2)," aimed at preparing students for professional challenges by enhancing their communication skills. The primary focus of the workshop was to develop interview skills, with a special emphasis on the self-introduction segment, which plays a crucial role in making a strong first impression during job interviews. The session was conducted by Ms. Sreemayee Chakrabarty, Assistant General Manager, Talent Development Team (TD-LDP), Tata Consultancy Services (TCS).

Ms. Chakrabarty shared valuable insights into the essentials of effective self-introduction, articulation, voice modulation, body language, and confidence-building techniques. She guided participants on crafting a structured self-introduction that highlights their strengths, skills, and career aspirations. The workshop featured mock interviews, where students practiced introducing themselves, followed by real-time feedback from the expert. This hands-on approach helped students identify their strengths and areas that needed improvement, making them more confident and interview-ready. Ms. Chakrabarty also emphasized the importance of clarity, conciseness, and professionalism while introducing oneself in professional settings.

A key highlight of the workshop was the interactive discussion on overcoming nervousness and mastering non-verbal communication. Ms. Chakrabarty provided tips on maintaining eye contact, using appropriate gestures, and structuring responses based on different job roles and industries. She also addressed the challenges of virtual interviews, guiding students on how to create a strong presence in online meetings. The session allowed participants to ask questions and receive personalized guidance on improving their interview performance. The blend of theory and practical exercises made the workshop engaging and highly beneficial for all attendees. A total of 52 students from Srikrishna college attended the program.

The workshop received an overwhelmingly positive response from students, faculty members. Many participants expressed that the session boosted their confidence and prepared them for upcoming job interviews. The Career Development Counseling & Placement Cell reaffirmed its commitment to organizing similar skill-enhancement programs in the future to ensure students are well-equipped for the transition from academia to industry. This initiative successfully bridged the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical industry expectations, empowering students with the essential communication skills needed for career success.

Why is this workshop important for students?

- 1.Improves Employability – Enhances students' ability to communicate effectively in job interviews and workplaces.
- 2.Bridges the Industry-Academia Gap – Prepares students for real-world business communication challenges.
- 3.Enhances Presentation & Public Speaking Skills – Boosts confidence in delivering ideas clearly and professionally.
- 4.Develops Teamwork & Leadership Abilities – Teaches students how to collaborate and lead effectively.
- 5.Strengthens Networking Skills – Helps students build valuable professional connections for future opportunities.

Report on Pre-Campus Recruitment Awareness Programme

Date of the Programme: 8th April 2025

Objective of the Programme:

The primary aim of the programme was to inform and guide students about the upcoming campus recruitment drive, providing them with detailed insights into the job opportunities available, and motivating them to participate actively in the interview process.

Programme Details:

The session provided the students with comprehensive information on:

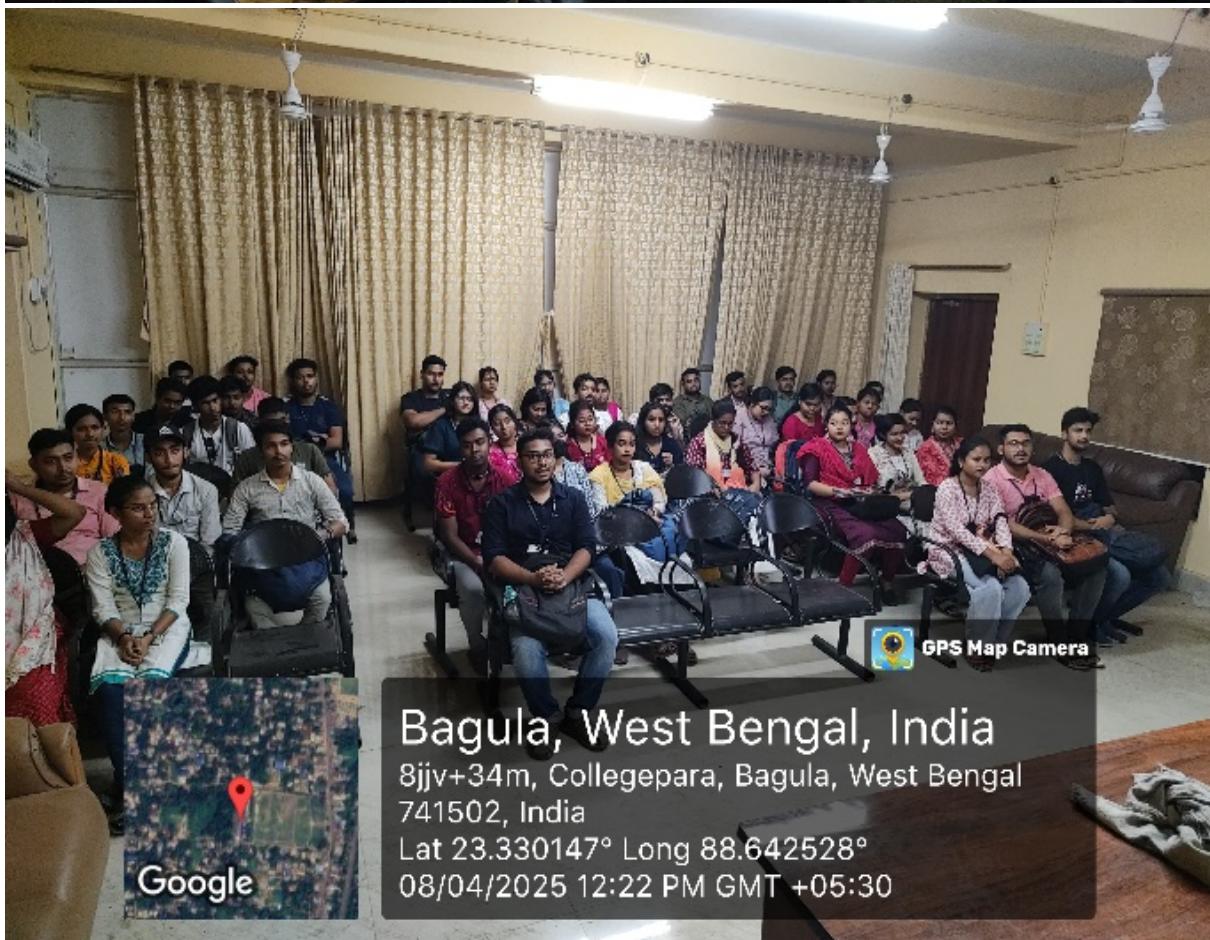

- Name of the recruiting company
- Job location
- Salary package
- Additional benefits offered by the employer
- Job description and profile requirements

Outcome of the Programme:

Students gained a clear understanding of the job profile, company expectations, and recruitment process. The programme successfully encouraged them to prepare for and attend the interview with confidence.

Remarks:

The Career Counselling Cell effectively addressed student queries, created awareness about the career opportunity, and motivated them to make the best use of the recruitment drive for career advancement.

Report on Campus Placement Drive

Date of the Programme: 24th April 2025

Time: 11:00 a.m.

Organised by: Career Counselling Cell, Srikrishna College, Bagula

Objective of the Programme:

The aim of the placement drive was to provide students with employment opportunities in reputed companies and help them gain direct industry exposure.

Job Details:

- Position: Picker, Packer (Flipkart)
- Location: Dum dum Nagerbazar, Dum dum Park, Birati
- Salary: ₹11,000 – ₹12,500 + PF + ESI
- Job Description: Responsible for picking and packing grocery items.

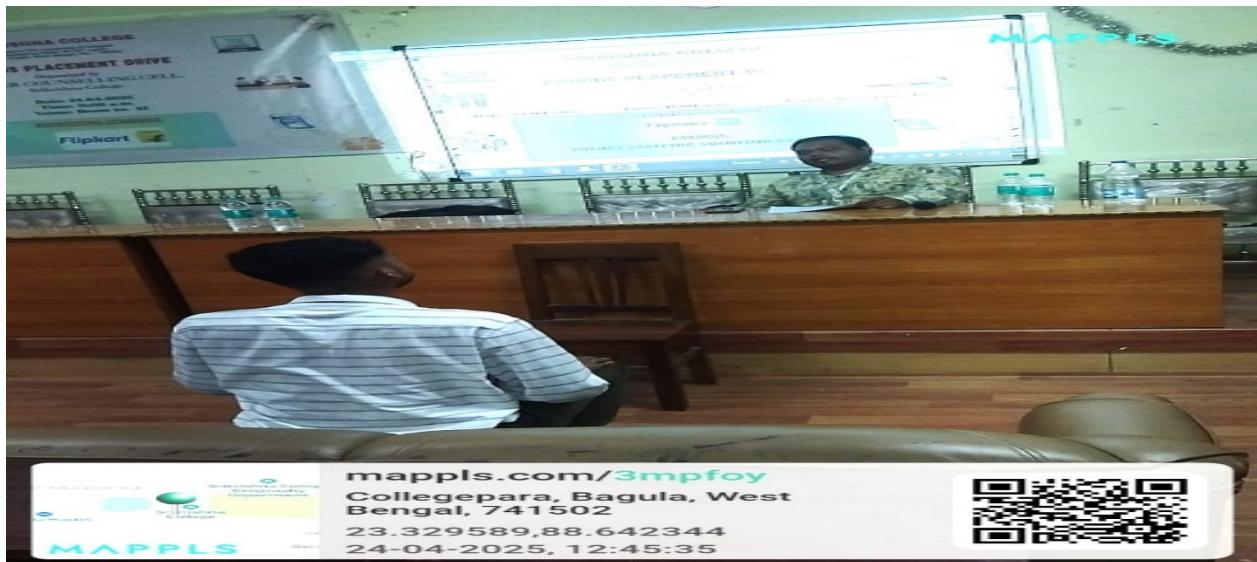

Programme Highlights:

A total of 55 students attended the interview. A few students successfully qualified for the selection process. However, despite qualifying, the candidates decided not to join the company due to the job location.

Outcome of the Programme:

The event provided students with first-hand experience of a real recruitment process, including screening, interview rounds, and employer interaction. Though the joining rate was nil due to location preferences, the programme enhanced students' interview skills and confidence.

Sri Mihir Biswas, Revenue Officer, Land and Land Reforms Department, Government of West Bengal, and Member of Alumni Association, Srikrishna College

3. Seminar Objectives

The core objectives of the seminar were:

- To promote inclusive training methodologies tailored to the needs of UPSC and other civil service aspirants.
- To explore avenues for making preparatory resources accessible to underprivileged students.
- To encourage participation from rural and marginalized communities in national and state-level competitive examinations.

4. Programme Proceedings

The session commenced with a formal welcome address by the organising committee, followed by floral felicitations to the dignitaries. In his keynote speech, Sri Surajit Kar Purkayastha elaborated on the structural challenges faced by aspirants from disadvantaged backgrounds and the significance of policy-level interventions.

Sri Amit Kumar Bose highlighted the importance of discipline, resource planning, and mentorship in competitive examination success. Dr. Arindam Roy and Dr. Pratip Chattopadhyay shared valuable academic insights into political and administrative frameworks, encouraging aspirants to approach preparation holistically.

Alumni members Sri Bimal Krishna Roy and Sri Mihir Biswas shared motivational experiences from their own professional journeys, serving as role models for the student community.

5. Key Takeaways

The necessity of designing training programmes that address linguistic, economic, and geographical disadvantages.

Importance of mentorship and alumni involvement in guiding aspirants.

Availability of institutional support through state-sponsored initiatives like the Satyendranath Tagore Civil Services Study Centre.

6. Outcome of the Programme

The seminar successfully fostered awareness among students regarding the various challenges and opportunities in civil services preparation. Participants left with a clearer understanding of the resources available to them, and the importance of perseverance, community support, and inclusivity in achieving their career goals.
