

ANNUAL CULTURAL PROGRAM 2017-2018

The Department of Bengali conducts an annual program in cooperation with all respected faculty members and students of the department of Bengali. In this program, students perform various cultural activities, such as dance-drama, recitation, song, debate, etc. They participate in presentation of famous Bengali dramas. The faculty members are also actively involve with full of enthusiasm. More than 120 students of the Bengali Department participated in this program. The annual cultural program of the Bengali Department is a precious and most awaited occasion of the institution. The faculties encourage the students to improve their soft skills through this program. The faculties of other departments awaited eagerly for this occasion.

