

REPORT ON SYLLABUS RELATED FILM SHOW

Bengali is a creative and imaginative subject. There is no scope of practical experience of the knowledge. So the Department of Bengali arrange to show some syllabus related film in the front of the students. After the show, faculties discuss their views on the plot, character, presentation of the base novel and related film also This is our departmental best practice. In this session, our department arrange two syllabus related film shows for the departmental students. The films were "Tinkonnya", short stories written by Rabindranath Tagore and directed by Satyajit Ray on 29th November 2019 and "Ghore –Baire" famous novel, written by Rabindranath Tagore and also directed by Satyajit Ray on 13th November, 2019. After the show, Principal, Dr. Sukdeb Ghosh and other faculty members explained their views about the film. The students also shared their experience in the forum. Our objective of this film show was fulfilled through such exchange of views.

