

REPORT ON SYLLABUS RELATED FILM SHOW

Bengali is a creative and imaginative subject. There is no scope of practical experience of the knowledge. So the Department of Bengali arrange to show some syllabus related film in the front of the students. After the show, faculties discuss their views on the plot, character, presentation of the base novel and related film also This is our departmental best practice. In this academic session, the department arranged to show “Pather Pancali”-the famous novel ,wrote by Bivutivusan Bandopaddhyay on 24th November, 2018.After the show, Principal, Dr. Sukdeb Ghosh and other faculty members explained their views about the film. The students also shared their experience in the forum. Our objective of this film show was fulfilled through such exchange of views .About 30 students participated in the show and delivered their opinion about the film
