

RABINDRA JAYANTI

Rabindanath Tagore is an architect of our culture and literature. As a reader and student of Bengali Language and Literature, the department celebrates his birthday and pay homage in very respectful manners .The faculties discuss Tagore’s contribution to the literature from different angles. The students of the department perform song ,dance, recitation, drama and dance-drama of Tagore ,on this occasion, in a very respectful manner. The students of other departments also join and enjoy this colourful program every year.

