

Teacher's Day

The Birth Anniversary of Dr. SarvapallyRadhakrishnanis celebrated as a Teacher's day on the 5th of the month of September in our country. The departmental students celebrate this occasion to pay their love and respect to their teachers. They arrange a colorful cultural program and offer some gifts to t to give respect as well as love to their teachers . More than 100 students of the department attend this occasion. The faculties also show affection to their beloved students by their speeches .The teacher-student relationship becomes very strong and friendly by the celebration of this commemorative day.

