Title: Parent-Teacher Meeting Report – Department of Political Science, Srikrishna College Bagula.

Date: 04-01-2024

Introduction:

The Parent-Teacher Meeting at the Department of Political Science Srikrishna College, Bagula took place on 04-01-2024. The event served as an invaluable platform for fostering communication and collaboration between parents and educators. Four Faculty members (Sri. Kamallesh Poddar, Sri. Binoy Biswas, Sri. Tapash Biswas, and Sri Arijit Chowdhury) were present in this meeting.

Agenda:

1. To discuss the academic progress of Students and address any concerns or queries of parents.
2. Review of the result of the previous Examination.
3. Discussion regarding the poor attendance of students.
4. Suggestion of parents.
5. Miscellaneous.

Outcomes and Feedback:

The Parent-Teacher Meeting resulted in fruitful discussions, fostering a sense of partnership between parents and teachers. Key outcomes included:

- Identification of student strengths and weaknesses.
- Clarification of college policies and procedures.

- Collaborative strategies for addressing academic challenges.
- Enhanced understanding of the college's educational approach.

Feedback from both parents and teachers highlighted the importance of such meetings in building a supportive educational community. Parents appreciated the transparency and the opportunity to actively participate in their child's college journey.

Next Step:

1. As a follow-up, the department plans to share detailed reports on individual student performance, incorporating feedback received during the meeting. Additionally, suggestions from parents will be considered in ongoing efforts to improve the overall educational experience.
2. It has been decided to form a Whatsapp group to maintain regular contact between parents and Faculty members to discuss the various issues regarding the learning of the students of different semesters.
3. It has been decided that Parent-Teachers Meeting (PPT) will be called by the Department at least once every three months.

Arijit Chowdhury, HOD, Department of Political Science declared the meeting over after congratulating everyone.
